LOCAL CULLINGS AND COMMENT.

John L. Barnett has typhoid fever.

J. B. McDaniel, Olaton, has mumps.

Miss Annie Hawkins began a spring school at Beda, Monday.

Nimrod Wilson is very ill at his father's, L. M. Wilson near Prentice.

Judge Ben Newton has qualified as deputy sheriff for the Buford district.

J. C. Riley, Hartford, Ky., has a lot of fine brick for sale at reasonable prices.

Rev. A. C. Leach, of near Horton, has been authorized to perform the rites of matrimony.

Rev. G. J. Bean filled his regular appointment at the Miller school house last Sunday.

The case between the Alexander heirs and the Falls of Rough railroad, has been compromised at $3,000.

Just received at C. N. Gunthers fresh oysters, choicest fruits, and in fact everything in fancy grocery line.

A. L. Morton has sold his Chas. Campbell farm to a Mr. Stratton of near Cromwell, who has moved to it.

I will preach at Beda on 4th Sunday in March at 11 o'clock a. m., and at Goshen on 5th Sunday at 11 o'clock a. m. G. J. BEAN.

James Murry, formerly of Hartford, is now located at Rockport, Ky., and is prepared to do all kinds of blacksmith work. 12 21

The meeting at Hamilton is still in progress. Much good has already been accomplished, with good results to follow.

The judgment rendered a point Fred Burges at the last term of Circuit Court has been reversed by court of appeals, and new trial ordered.

The firm who bought the Emporia Mines from Mercer Bros. are building a new store house, and will have a telegraph office established there.

Messrs. T. J. Smith and E. P. Thomas are having a brick pavilion laid in front of Mr. Smith's property on Clay street up to Mr. Thomas' gate.

Mrs. Briggs's house caught fire last Sunday morning, but was noticed in time to be extinguished without any damage. Defective fuse was the cause.

Robert Hicks, living at McHenry, Ky., had the misfortune to lose his horse and most all the contents by fire last Saturday morning. Insurance, $750.

Judge W. L. Hawkins, of Pleasant Ridge, gave us a pleasant call while in town Saturday. He showed us three new old British coins, a penny, half penny or bunce and farthing. They were presented to him by a Scotch lady who was a great friend of his family.

Mr. William Foster is moving to Hartford this week. His son Joseph will run the farm this year. Uncle Billie is a good citizen, and we welcome him among us.

Mr. S. C. Corbin, of Beech Grove, McLean county, bought four mules in the vicinity of Cromwell last week at fair prices. He is buying a good many mules in the county.

F. W. Yeiser has moved his blacksmith shop to the Tweddell stand, next door to S. A. Williams furniture store, and is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line on short notice.

Judge C. W. Massie's house caught fire last Saturday afternoon, but fortunately was discovered and put out with but little damage to the house. A defective fuse was the cause of the fire.

James McSherry passed through town yesterday enroute home. He was moving his mother, Mahaley McSherry, who has been living about 3 miles North of Hartford, to his home near Selet, Ky.

E. S. Boswell, of Smithfield, Ky., agent of the Sunday School Union, lectured at the Methodist church Sunday night. He explained the workings of the Union, and was favored by a good audience.

The Presbyterians of McHenry, contemplate erecting a fine church building in their town in the near future. They have a very neat sum already in the treasury with a goodly subscription yet to be collected.

Marriage licenses issued since our last report: C. W. Howard to Melena Bayne, J. A. Wayman to Judith A. Stewart, R. T. Brown to Sarah L. Whittinghill, Geo. L. Corley to Julia A. Snape, W. T. Westerfield to Palestine Myers.

When you are in Beaver Dam, don't fail to call around and see the superior work of T. J. Morris, the boot and shoemaker. He guarantees work to be first-class and satisfaction given to all customers. Give him a call and be convinced. 40 4m

There was a perceptible shock from earthquake felt in Hartford Sunday night between seven and eight o'clock. It was distinctly heard by the congregation at the Methodist church. It was felt in the Buford neighborhood and other places.

As Dr. Isaac Foster was riding to Beda last Saturday morning a pig about two weeks old followed him for two or three miles. When the Dr. would stop the pig would rest quietly by the roadside, and follow again when the Dr. started. Its actions indicated a degree of intelligence rarely found in the young of the lower animals.

The little town of Fordville was greatly saddened last Thursday by the sudden death of little Amanda Wilson, daughter of Mr. Maurice Wilson. She had just returned from school and complained of headache, a few hours later which she died of spinal meningitis. She was a great favorite in Fordville, where her loss will be keenly felt.

J. E. Fogle & Co. have cut a door in the partition wall of the store they formerly occupied and the one they now occupy, and will, in the course of a few days, open up a large double room store, with a complete stock of spring goods.

To the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of Hartford:—Why not make some move to have your church at this place completed? There is quite enough subscribed to do this if some one would only take the pains to have said subscription collected. Who will see to this?

Messrs. Phelps, Baird and Guffy have employed Mr. Edward Orton, State Geologist, of Ohio, to inspect the oil and gas lands leased by them. Mr. Orton writes that he will be here the last week of this month, and will at once begin work. We are pleased to see such flattering prospects for development of our county.

In justice to C. B. Martin, the jeweler, who distributed so many handsome and valuable presents to his patrons on last Saturday at court house by way of chance, we make mention of the fact that J. W. Martin, who drew the capital prize is in no way related to Mr. C. B. Martin. He has no relatives in this end of the State.

Fred A. Taylor brought his brother, John, to Hartford Sunday afternoon. He waited awhile after supper before starting home, leaving his horses hitched; when he went to get his horses to start home they were gone. They were found next day near Beaver Dam. It is supposed they were ridden by some one and turned loose.

John J. McHenry has drawn a plat or diagram for the new park. It is fashioned after the most improved and modern style. The walk ways, shade trees, ornamental trees and resting places are admirably arranged and show the superior skill of the designer. If the park is completed after the plan drawn, it will be a beauty indeed.

The following are the numbers that drew the small presents in Martin's Gift Distribution that have not been called for, viz: 1234, 162, 1227, 1036, 1773, 22, 787, 785, 693, 1118, 752, 1439, 1381, 601, 784, 394, 1185, 4, 754, 1499, 285 1239, 282. The capital prize gold watch was drawn by No. 1396, and drawn by W. J. Martin, of Buford, Ky. The next highest the silver watch was drawn by E. D. Guffy, No. 1390 being the lucky ticket.

Mr. Harrison D. Taylor received a very severe and painful injury last Thursday morning. He was walking in his back yard, when a rock turned under his foot, causing him to fall. His injuries were a dislocated hip joint and a broken bone. Mrs. Taylor, who was in Louisville at the time, was telegraphed for, and hastened to his bedside. Medical aid was summoned at once, and the wounds dressed. Mr. Taylor is doing as well as one of his extreme age could possibly be expected to do.

A Good Proposition.

It has been decreed by the Governor, that March 30th be set aside as Arbor Day in Kentucky. As our town park has been graded and the walks laid off, I would like to ask the people of the town and county, that we observe this day. Hartford is the county seat, and every individual in the county, as well as the citizens, have an interest in the park. We want it to be an ornament to the town in which friends may often meet and enjoy themselves, a place suitable to have our Sunday School sessions, public speaking, etc. Even though we should never enjoy the shade of the trees we plant—may not let us then be not for self alone, look to the good we might do for others by only expending a little energy.

SCHOOL GIRL.

POINT PLEASANT.

S. W. Tichenor is severely afflicted with rheumatism.

Alvis B. Tichenor sold on last Monday to A. L. Williams a good farm mule for $125.

Miss Mollie James gave a birthday party on last Saturday evening, which was greatly enjoyed by the young people.

Bennett & Co. are doing a thriving business with their little mill in the way of grinding corn.

Lennie Brown, who has been visiting friends and relatives in the Point, returned home last Monday.

Rheumatism is caused by lactic acid in the blood, which Hoot's Sarsaparilla neutralizes, and thus cures rheumatism.

Another, and Last Proposition.

Parties knowing themselves indebted to me as executor of Washington Phillips' estate, will please come forward at once and settle same. By the will of said Washington Phillips, I was directed to pay out large sums of money, and in order that this be done, I must have what is due him from his creditors. Now, should I fail to heed this, my call, don't feel aggrieved if I should have an officer call on you, for I must have what money is due me as executor of said Washington Phillips, and meet him now. Respectfully, Wm. Phillips.

For Sale.

A house and lot of half acre, in a desirable locality in Fordville, also a half acre lot adjoining the above lot without building. Will sell one or both; will take work stock in exchange. Terms reasonable. Call on or address J. S. REYNOLDS, Fordville, Ky.

J. Wesley Brown, son of James Brown, formerly of this county, is visiting relatives near Rosine and Cromwell. Mr. Brown has been absent from this county about 30 years. He now lives in the Indian Territory. Rumor has it that he will likely take home with him a fair damsel, who lives at Rosine. "Hy Brown." The Rosine boys are done up.

LATER.—Mr. Brown and Miss Julia Bailey, daughter of James Bailey, will be married at the home of the bride to day at 10 o'clock a. m.

As to who but the bull of the bridge was not tell, unless it was the fellow that wouldn't see Gant's magic chicken on cholora cure. Sold "no cure, no pay" by Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro.

Mac Marshall, of Hartford, is here to visit his father, Mr. E. R. Marshall.—(Owensboro Messenger.)

Mrs. James Barnett will have charge of a military department soon to be opened up by J. E. Fogle & Co.

Rev. H. C. Truman, Fordville, has graduated as a pupil in Hartford College for the remainder of the term.

Mrs. S. C. Walker returned from a visit to relatives at White Run, Ohio county to-day.—(Owensboro Enquirer.)

Rev. E. H. Maddox, McHenry, passed through Hartford yesterday on his way home from Breckinridge county.

Erasmus H. Craig and daughter, Miss Ella, of White Plains, Hopkins county, visited relatives near Buford last week.

Edward Barras, who has been superintending some Eastern Kentucky Coal Mine, is visiting his children in Hartford.

Uncle Wm. Steele, who has been visiting relatives in Daviess county for the past several weeks, returned home Thursday.

W. H. Stevens, P. T. Mosley, Horton; Oscar Haynes, Haynesville; G. W. Graf, Sulphur Springs, were in town yesterday.

W. M. Fair, of the firm of J. E. Fogle & Co., left for the east Monday to purchase a spring stock of goods. He will be absent several days.

Philip Wise left Cromwell, Ky., last Thursday for Black Rock, Ark., where he will make his home in the future. We wish Mr. Wise well wherever his lot is cast.

Dr. H. C. Truman, son of Willard, the clergy, was in Hartford Friday and Saturday, on a visit to Mr. H. C. Davis, Jr., who is attending school here. They were the guests of Dr. J. S. Coleman, while in town.

Mrs. Sam Francis and niece, Miss Heintz, and Dr. H. C. Truman, wife and child, of Newville, and Miss Jessie Ford and Jack Foreman, of Hartford, spent last Wednesday very pleasantly at Mrs. Dr. Cox's, Abbeville.

R. T. Bell, Buford; E. B. Felix, Olaton; Ed Masie, Jr., E. L. Evans, Whitesville; J. C. Bennett, Smithsboro; Nichol Barras, Taylor Mines; Col. J. P. Barnard, Louisville; Bowen H. Snook, Abbeville, were in Hartford Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Berry and son, Ned, left yesterday for Florida. They will visit Dr. Berry's father and other relatives. Dr. Berry expects to select a location by fall. His friends here good citizens in Dr. Berry and family.

John W. Leach, Horton; J. E. Her, Buford; Richard Ross, Rockport; W. B. Hayward, Sulphur Springs; Prof. W. L. Hawkins, Pleasant Ridge; W. C. Truman, L. S. Truman, Fordville; E. G. Huley, Paradise, called to see us while in town last week.

Mrs. S. W. Anderson will return from the east this week, when he has been to purchase a spring stock of goods. He will be accompanied home by Miss Mary Franz, of Cincinnati, who will have charge of the military department of the school.

Judge Gregory no more.

Judge William F. Gregory died at his residence, in Hartford, Wednesday morning, March 13, 1889, about 2:30 o'clock. He had been sick but a few days before he died. He received the best medical aid, but the skill of physicians could not conquer the dread disease of which he died. The news of his death was received with universal sorrow.

Judge Gregory was an excellent companionable man. He was scholarly, genial and polite, and was closely identified with every movement for the promotion of the community's interests in every way.

As a lawyer he was recognized as able, learned and just; as a citizen, energetic in every regard; as a church member, exemplary and circum-spect in his daily life.

He belonged to a family that traces its ancestry back to the early days of the settlement of this country. His father, B. P. Gregory, was a prosperous farmer of Boyle county. His mother was Susan Clark, a Kentuckian by birth, and of the family of which Gov. Clark of this State was a member.

Judge Gregory was born at Danville, Ky., June 16, 1837. He graduated from Kentucky Military Institute at Frankfort with honor in 1857. He was appointed to the chair of Mathematics in the Institute, from which he graduated, which he filled with ability and distinction. In 1862 he married Miss Zella Berry, daughter of Dr. W. J. Berry, of Ohio county, and in 1863 located in Hartford to practice his profession. He always enjoyed a lucrative practice, and was elected to several positions of honor and trust by the people.

His funeral services were held Thursday afternoon. The members of the bar attended in a body, the pupils of the College also attended in a body, and a large concourse of the citizens from town and the surrounding country were present. Dr. J. S. Coleman, the minister who pronounced his marriage ceremony, read his funeral services, which were sad, solemn and appropriate to the occasion.

The remains were buried in the cemetery near Hartford Thursday afternoon. The Hartford Bar, of which he was a prominent member, met and passed the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, In the disposition of his Divine Providence, the superior ruler of the universe, the great Judge of all mankind, the Allwise God has seen proper, in his infinite wisdom, to visit our midst with the angel of death, and remove from our professional brotherhood our esteemed brother, Judge W. F. Gregory, who departed this life on the morning of the 13th of March, 1889. Therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That in the loss of Judge W. F. Gregory, the Hartford bar has been deprived of an esteemed member, a zealous advocate, an able jurist and a kind brother, who by his courteous and gentlemanly conduct towards his fellow lawyers, and by the zealous manner in which he used all honorable means for the success of his client's cause, endeared himself to us in life and evoked from us an admiration which, surviving him, remains to us a constant incentive to deal courteously with each other and to emulate his high conception and practice of his noble profession, which induced him to use only honorable means to attain just ends.

2. Realizing, knowing as we do the more than exemplary and perfect manner our deceased brother filled the office of husband and father.

Resolved, That we tender to his bereaved family our sincere condolences for them in their deep grief for their irreparable loss of an intelligent, polished, christian companion, noble, loving and tender husband and kind, indulgent and affectionate father.

Resolved, That we attend in a body the funeral and interment of our brother, and that a copy of these resolutions be presented to his family and spread upon the records of the Ohio Circuit, County and Quarterly Courts, and published in the Hartford Herald and Kentucky Progress.

J. EDWIN ROWE,
H. E. TAYLOR,
E. D. GUFFY,
H. D. McHENRY,
E. D. WALKER.

The town trustees, of which body he was Secretary, passed the following resolutions:

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the town of Hartford, on the 14th day of March, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, Judge W. F. Gregory, the Secretary of this board, has departed this life.

RESOLVED, That in his death we have lost a useful member, the town and county a valuable and energetic citizen, and that we deeply sympathize with his family in this their sad affliction.

Resolved, That we attend his funeral in a body, and that these proceedings be entered on record, and a copy of same be given his family.

E. P. THOMAS,
E. J. SMITH,
W. T. KING,
J. C. RILEY,
E. D. GUFFY,
S. D. COX.

The Ohio County Baptist Institute, which was in session at Rockport when the news of his death reached them, passed the following resolutions:

The Ohio County Baptist Ministers Institute in session at Rockport, Ky., March 13, 1889.

WHEREAS, We have just received the painful intelligence of the sudden death of our beloved brother, W. F. Gregory, of Hartford Baptist Church.

RESOLVED, 1. That we extend our deepest sympathy, condolence to the bereaved wife and children, and also to the beloved Pastor and Church, and RESOLVED, 2. That we now adjourn after first being led in prayer by our President, Dr. J. S. Coleman, in behalf of those so deeply afflicted by this Providence.

H. C. TRUMAN, Sec'y.

The Ohio County Baptist Preachers Institute.

This body of ministers convened with the church at Rockport, Ohio county on Tuesday the 12th inst., and adjourned at noon on Thursday the 14th. Its meetings were full of interest throughout. But on the second day of our meeting, our hearts were made sad when Dr. Coleman received a dispatch, calling him away to attend the funeral of Judge Gregory.

The program was followed throughout, and various subjects called fourth. Not a few fervent speeches from quite a number of brethren. We were sorry however that we did not have a larger attendance of the younger ministers of the county, for it is this class of men who are to be specially benefitted by hearing and taking a part in the discussions of the various Biblical questions, which came up before this body. We hope therefore, that in the future they will take more interest in the meetings of this body.

To say that the good people of Rockport bade us welcome, would be to speak of them mildly. They also turned out on mass and seemed to take much interest in the discussions of the various questions, which were considered.

The Rockport Band discoursed sweet music for us on several occasions during our short stay among them. Long live the good people of Rockport and vicinity.

The next meeting of this body will be held with the Baptist Church at Fordville about the 11th of June. T.

Sure to Carry.

(Columbus Constitution.)

It is but little over a fortnight till the railroad question will be settled. It is gaining new recruits every day, and will carry with a whoop. The building of the road will soon follow, and then will dawn upon McLean county a new era of prosperity. Everybody will get wealthier, happier, and wiser.

TO THE MINERS, MINE LABORERS AND LADIES OF TAYLOR MINES, OHIO CO., KY.—I have received by the hands of Mr. W. A. Morton, an elegant gold watch and a beautifully designed medal with the inscription: Presented to J. P. Sullivan by the miners, mine laborers and ladies of Taylor Mine, Ohio county, Ky., Feb. 16, 1889.

For the moment of reciprocal affection, I will ever feel that I am under an undying obligation to you. I can assure you that the happiest moments of my life were spent among you, and the greatest joy of my life was to be in your midst. Words are not mine and language fails me in an attempt at an expression of gratitude. This token, though will ever be treasured as a seal of our well won affection, and when the cold and silent grave is closed above me, then only shall you and your kindness be forgotten.

J. P. SULLIVAN.
Corydon, Ky., March 15, 1889.
